CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Welcome to you who are poor in spirit!
Right: Welcome to you who mourn!
Left: Welcome to you who hunger and thirst for justice!
Right: Welcome to you who are peacemakers!
Left: Welcome to you who suffer and bear what is unbearable in the name of Jesus Christ!
Leader: God, in Jesus, welcomes each one of you.
It is he who wants to bear with us the burdens of these days.
All: Let us open ourselves to his presence, and may his joy grip us this morning.
—Nathalie Werner in “Words and prayers for worship”

PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Lord, we worship and praise you, we stand humbly before you.
We recognize that you accomplish your plans for the world.
We confess our refusal to see the promise of a new humanity.
We are overwhelmed by the matters of this world.
We are distracted from our commitments by other appeals.
We are victims of our prejudices, our fears, and our short-term vision.
We ask you to transform us in the image of Christ.
We ask you to take us into your service and use us in order that all peoples, all races, and all nations might grow together in peace and mutual understanding.
We ask these things in the name of Christ, who is the only one that can make our peoplehood a reality.

—Michel Sommer in “Words and prayers for worship”

ANNOUNCEMENT HIGHLIGHTS

Today in our adult education class in the sanctuary, we'll have a panel examining "Christian Nationalism" in our country today. We'll also explore possible Mennonite responses. The members of the panel are Jamie H., Carlen S., Chuck L., and Nathan P.

Next Sunday, we will celebrate communion together. Let us each prayerfully prepare for this time and consider whether God is calling us to reconciliation in a broken relationship (Matthew 5:23-24).

If you retired in 2025, please contact a member of the Pastoral Care Team. We'd like to recognize you during a worship service.

The MYF Bistro is just two weeks away on Saturday, February 7! Bistro is a full Italian meal in a pop-up restaurant. Enjoy a cozy dinner with friends or celebrate Valentine's Day early with your special someone (the Venture Club provides free babysitting!). We'll serve dinner from 5:30-8:00 PM and the reservation portal is open. Donations will support the MYF's service, listening, and learning trip to Costa Rica this summer.
